

Three Rivers Interlocal Council (TRIC) Work Plan Effective July 1, 2018 – June 30, 2019

Introduction

The Three Rivers Interlocal Council (TRIC) is composed of thirteen communities south of Boston and takes its name from the three major rivers in the sub-region: the Neponset, Charles, and Canoe Rivers. TRIC promotes informed and active cooperation in planning for growth and preservation in the region and each community has a representative that makes up the Council's principal membership:

Canton – Brian Mahoney	Norwood – Thomas O'Rourke
Dedham – John Sisson	Randolph – Currently vacant
Dover – Currently vacant	Sharon – Susan Price
Foxborough – Paige E. Duncan	Stoughton – Louis Gitto
Medfield – Sarah Raposa	Walpole – Timothy Higgins
Milton – Taber Keally	Westwood – Steve Olanoff
Needham – Maurice Handel

Leadership and Staff

Paige Duncan serves as Chair of TRIC, Susan Price serves as the Vice-Chair, and Michael McCusker serves as the Second Vice-Chair. Laurie Zivkovich serves in the role of TRIC Subregional Coordinator. Thomas O'Rourke, who is the subregion's designee to the Metropolitan Planning Organization (MPO). The current term of TRIC's MPO designee ends on October 31, 2018. The next elections for Chair and Vice-Chair will take place on May 21, 2019.

TRIC 2018 - 2019 Goals

TRIC will continue to serve as a forum to:

- provide members with timely notification and information on issues of importance;
- foster cooperative planning efforts among the municipalities;
- influence regional transportation policy; and
- facilitate communication between and among the municipalities, in partnership with MAPC representatives, through the participation of local officials involved with planning issues.

TRIC Meeting Schedule and Topics

Monthly meetings will be held from 9:00AM to 10:30AM on the third Tuesday of each month, with the exception of August and December when TRIC does not meet. Occasional meetings, forums for special events or site visits/walking tours may be scheduled outside of the normal meeting time. Unless otherwise noted, meetings are held at the Norwood Chamber of Commerce off of Rt. 1 at 520 Providence Highway, Suite 4, Norwood.

In addition to the topics outlined below, each meeting will strive to include the following content:

- Community Exchange: Opportunity to share notable municipal achievements or updates.
- MAPC Updates: Update on initiatives, events, technical assistance and other opportunities provided through MAPC.
- Legislative Updates: Update on legal decisions pertaining to land use, state legislation of note and MAPC legislative priorities.
- Funding and technical assistance opportunities of interest: Update on technical assistance and other opportunities provided by other organizations and agencies.

MetroFuture Update: MAPC will begin updating the regional plan, MetroFuture. TRIC will have opportunities to learn about the progress, provide input, and otherwise be engaged in the planning process.
