

Acknowledgments

This plan has been the work of many contributors, but first we would like to thank the thousands of residents and workers in Greater Boston that participated and provided their thoughts on the future, ideas to explore, and comments and criticisms on the recommendations of the plan. Your contributions have made this our plan for the region.

The External Advisory Committee (EAC) guided our work over three long years. The co-chairs, Jacqueline Furtado and Alice Brown, provided great leadership, advice, and direction throughout the planning process:
