On June 4, the Legislature sent to Governor Healey the final Chapter 90 and transportation infrastructure funding proposal for her signature. The proposal includes $300 million for Chapter 90 funding for cities and towns for one year. This funding will be allocated the same way that it was in 2025, with $200 million allocated using the traditional Chapter 90 formula and $100 million allocated by road miles.

Beyond Chapter 90 funding, H.5375 includes new transportation bonding authorizations:

6121-2617 Bridge and pavement lifecycle asset management program.....	$500 million
6121-2768 Transportation Capital Projects to support housing development.....	$200 million
6121-2737 Parkway Resilience Improvement and Safety Modernization (PRISM).....	$200 million
6622-2747 Rail Improvements.....	$200 million

H.5375 also includes reauthorizations of programs included in the 2022 Transportation Bond Bill:

6121-2214 Non-interstate federal highway system	$2.3 billion
6121-2217 Non-federal aid highways.....	$800 million
6121-2228 Municipal Pavement Program.....	$65 million
6720-2258 Shared Streets and Municipal Grants.....	$12 million
